Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in New Zealand on May 15, 1999. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the 332871 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b). Further, acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an the international application PCT/NZ00/00073 filed May 15, 2000; however, a copy of this application has also not been received.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: on line 6, "the locking member" after "a locking member" appears to be repetitious and should be deleted for clarity. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 2, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Essex et al 4,881,867. Essex shows a connection apparatus for connecting an implement to a prime mover, the connection apparatus including a body arranged to be mounted on the prime mover, the body including a connection means for connecting the body to the implement, the connection means including at least two recesses disposed substantially at right angles to one another within the body (unnumbered recess for elements 15 and 16; figure 2), and a locking member 14 being adapted to move to a first position, in which the locking member engages the implement to lock the implement and the body together, the locking member being adapted to move to a second position in which the locking member is disengaged from the implement so that the implement can be demounted from the body, and a means to move the locking member 14 which includes a ram 18 mounted on a plate 17 (via 19) which is slidably mounted to the body, the ram being arranged to move the plate to move the locking member to at least one of the positions.

As concerns claim 2, shows the locking member is carried on the plate which is slidably mounted to the body (figure 2).

Art Unit: 3671

As concerns claim 5, shows the ram is arranged to be extended to move the locking member to the first position (figure 2).

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

6. Claims 1, 2, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pemberton 6,233,852. Pemberton shows a connection apparatus for connecting an implement to a prime mover, the connection apparatus including a body arranged to be mounted on the prime mover, the body including a connection means for connecting the body to the implement, the connection means including at least two recesses disposed substantially at right angles to one another within the body 36 & 22, and a locking member 28 being adapted to move to a first position, in which the locking member engages to implement to lock the implement and the body together, the locking member being adapted to move to a second position in which the locking member is disengaged from the implement so that the implement can be demounted from the body, and a means to move the locking member 28 which includes a ram 84 mounted on a plate 38 (via 82) which is slidably mounted to the body, the ram being arranged to move the plate to move the locking member to at least one of the positions.

As concerns claim 2, shows the locking member is carried on the plate which is slidably mounted to the body (figures 1A-1B).

As concerns claim 5, shows the ram is arranged to be extended to move the locking member to the first position (figures 1A-1B).

Art Unit: 3671

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 3, 4, and 6-8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. Claims 9-12 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
